Percent for Art

ABOUT

Maine's Percent for Art Law was created in 1979.

Since 1982, Maine's Percent for Art Program has generated approximately $7,824,373 in funds for public art in Maine.

More than 400 projects have been completed.

It has employed approximately 816 artists.

82% of projects listed were placed in schools (i.e. public schools K-12, universities, and colleges).

Percent for Art is truly represented state-wide, placed in 175 communities in all 16 counties.

Approximately 824 works of art have been created.
